

I am appalled that a corporation like Sinclair could broadcast a one-sided program like "Stolen Honor" just weeks before an election. Where is the principle of fairness and equal access? Our democracy is subverted when a media corporation decides to enter the political campaign by broadcasting such a partisan program. Sinclair should either be prevented from broadcasting such a program or should be required to give equal time to a program that presents the opposite viewpoint.